

Research workshop on "IPRs and standard for innovation : Institutional design"

Date: October 16th 2012, from 9: 20 am to 1:00 pm

Venue: International Conference Room, Third floor, (一橋大学東キャンパスの第三研究館 3階研究会議室・共用会議室 (Faculty Building 3, Hitotsubashi University), No. 40 in <http://www.hit-u.ac.jp/eng/about/direction/guide/campus/e-campus/index.html>)

Organized by “Science of Science, Technology and Innovation Policy Program” (Institute of Innovation Research), Research Institute for Policies on Pension (Institute of Economic Research) and Aging and Research Project on Evolution of Standards

Provisional Program

1st session on Standard and Collaboration

9: 20 am to 11:20 am (25 minutes presentations and 15 minutes Q&A)

Chair: Sadao Nagaoka Professor, Hitotsubashi University

“Standard and patent” (TBA),

Stuart Graham, Chief Economist of the USPTO

“Patent Law Design in the 'Open Innovation' Era”

Yoshiyuki Tamura, Professor, Hokkaido University

“Coalition formation through a patent pool for standard”,

Reiko Aoki, Professor, Hitotsubashi University

11:20 am to 11:40 am Coffee Break

2nd session on Patent system

11:40am to 13:00 pm (25 minutes presentations and 15 minutes Q&A)

Chair: Stuart Graham, Chief Economist of the USPTO

“Continuing applications and quality of inventions”

Naotoshi Tsukada, Researcher, RIETI

“Third party participations in patent examination”

Sadao Nagaoka, Professor, Hitotsubashi University